Director Profile

Having completed his post-graduation in economics, M. Srinivasa Rao began his professional journey with India's most dynamic IT Company – Xerox, much suited to his style of working. Over a decade, he was managing several key accounts and attained quite a number of key responsibilities. In 1997 Srinivasa Rao shifted to CANON, which was just setting up operations in India at that span of time. After 5 years with CANON, M. Srinivasa Rao established Alphatech Solutions, complete IT Infrastructure Company. Srinivasa Rao's unmatched experience has catalysed Alphatech's quick rise in a fiercely competing industry. His philanthropic side is richly exhibited in the form of the varied CSR initiatives that Alphatech embraces. Engaging with customers and employees still excites him, and his humility truly shines through his deeds and his dealings.
